THIS MATTER is before the Court on its own motion in response to an oral request of the U.S. Marshal's Service that the above-named Defendant be temporarily released on bond. The U.S. Attorney's Office consents to Defendant's temporary release.<sup>1</sup>

On June 3, 2015, Defendant Charles Clifford Wiley, Jr., was sentenced to a term of twenty-four months imprisonment for violations of 18 U.S.C. § 922(g). Wiley, in custody pending designation by the Federal Bureau of Prisons, is currently hospitalized and in serious or critical condition.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that Defendant will be temporarily placed on bond, subject to the regular or standard conditions of release, pending a change in his medical condition and / or his improvement such that Defendant is capable of self-reporting to the Federal Bureau of Prisons for commencement of his active sentence.

<sup>1</sup> On June 20, 2014, the Court denied Defendant's Motion To Revoke Detention Order, finding the determinative factor to be "the nature and seriousness of the danger to any person or the community that would be posed by the person's release." (Doc. 11). Defendant's health condition presents a substantial change of circumstances.
